

R. O. T. C. WILL BE EXAMINED*Army Officers Here to Give Physical Tests.

Three regular army medical officers arrived in Columbia today to examine members of the R. O. T. C. at the University of Missouri. They are: Maj. F. R. McCarty, Captain Wm. A. Howard, and Lieut. D. M. Myers.

The War Department wishes to know the physical condition of the young men of the United States, and has ordered a thorough examination of the members of student training units of the different schools and universities.

The examinations will be held in Rothwell Gymnasium beginning at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning. Office hours will be 9 to 12 o'clock in the morning and 2 to 5 in the afternoon. The medical officers expect to remain in for about three days.

Col. W. E. Parsons says that each of the new students will be examined.

COTTON KING COMING*Farmers' Week Speaker Will Organize Missouri Cotton Growers.

J. S. Wannamaker of South Carolina, the largest individual cotton grower in the world, president of the American Cotton Association will be the principal speaker at the Missouri cotton conference to be held in Columbia Wednesday of Farmers' Week at 2 o'clock in Room 114 of the Agricultural Building. A Missouri branch of the American Cotton Association will be organized. The Missouri State Board of Agriculture issued a call for the conference Saturday.

The evening of January 21, Mr. Wannamaker will speak on "The Greatest Need of the World Today" in the University Auditorium.

The county courts and the commercial and agricultural organizations of Missouri's eleven cotton counties have been asked by the Board of Agriculture to send representatives to this conference.

According to Jewell Mayes, secretary of the Missouri Board of Agriculture, Mr. Wannamaker was induced to come to Columbia in preference to other places.

CHURCHES NEED $1,500,000*Taylor Returns From Interworld Conference at Georgia.

"The program now being worked out by the Interworld Church Conference at Atlanta is the greatest movement for the Christianization of society that has yet been undertaken," said A. W. Taylor today. Mr. Taylor has recently returned from Atlanta, Ga., where he has been attending the conference in the interests of church survey work which has been done by the Missouri Bible College.

The conference is made up of 1,400 elected church leaders of the United States and Canada, representing fifteen million church members. John R. Mott, international Y.M.C.A. leader, is presiding.

A finance committee of experts under the leadership of John D. Rockefeller, Jr., has been investigating the amount of money needed by all religious organizations to carry on their work for 1920.
